

Gender and Labour in the Global South

3.1 From a gender to an intersectional perspective

TOPICS

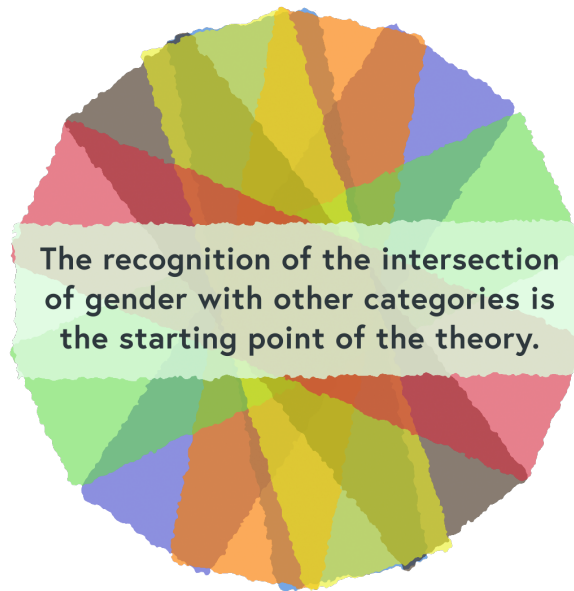

1. Multiple discrimination and its impact on labour market participation
2. Examples from Nepal
3. The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the labour market

CATEGORIES INTERSECTING GENDER

THEORY OF INTERSECTIONALITY

A graph visualising intersectionality, with intersecting rectangles. In the middle of the intersecting rectangles is the following text: "The recognition of the intersection of gender with other categories is the starting point of the theory."
