

University of Basel

In association with:

Healthcare for mobile pastoralists

1978 Conference in Kazakhstan

International Conference on Primary Health Care in Almaty, Kazakhstan:
Provision of health care should be recognised as a human right.

Mobile pastoralists

A world map with a light blue background. The landmasses are white with black outlines for countries. Several regions are highlighted in a light grey color with a thin red border. These regions include: a large area in Central Asia (Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan); a smaller area in Northern China; a large area in West and Central Africa (Mali, Niger, Chad, Sudan, Ethiopia); and a large area in Southern Africa (South Africa, Botswana, Zimbabwe, Mozambique, Swaziland, Lesotho). The text 'Mobile pastoralists' is written in large black font in the upper left, and 'Ca. 100 Mio living in Africa and Central Asia' is written in white font in the bottom left.

Ca. 100 Mio living in Africa and Central Asia

Mongolian family in ger (© J. Zinsstag, Swiss TPH)

Mobile pastoralists in Kyrgyzstan (© J. Zinsstag, Swiss TPH)

Mobile pastoralists in the Sahelian countries (© C. Heuss, Swiss TPH)

Fulani in Chad (© C. Heuss, Swiss TPH)

Somali pastoralists in Ethiopia (© J. Zinsstag, Swiss TPH)

Difficult access to water: Gredaya Falls, Africa (© C. Heuss, Swiss TPH)

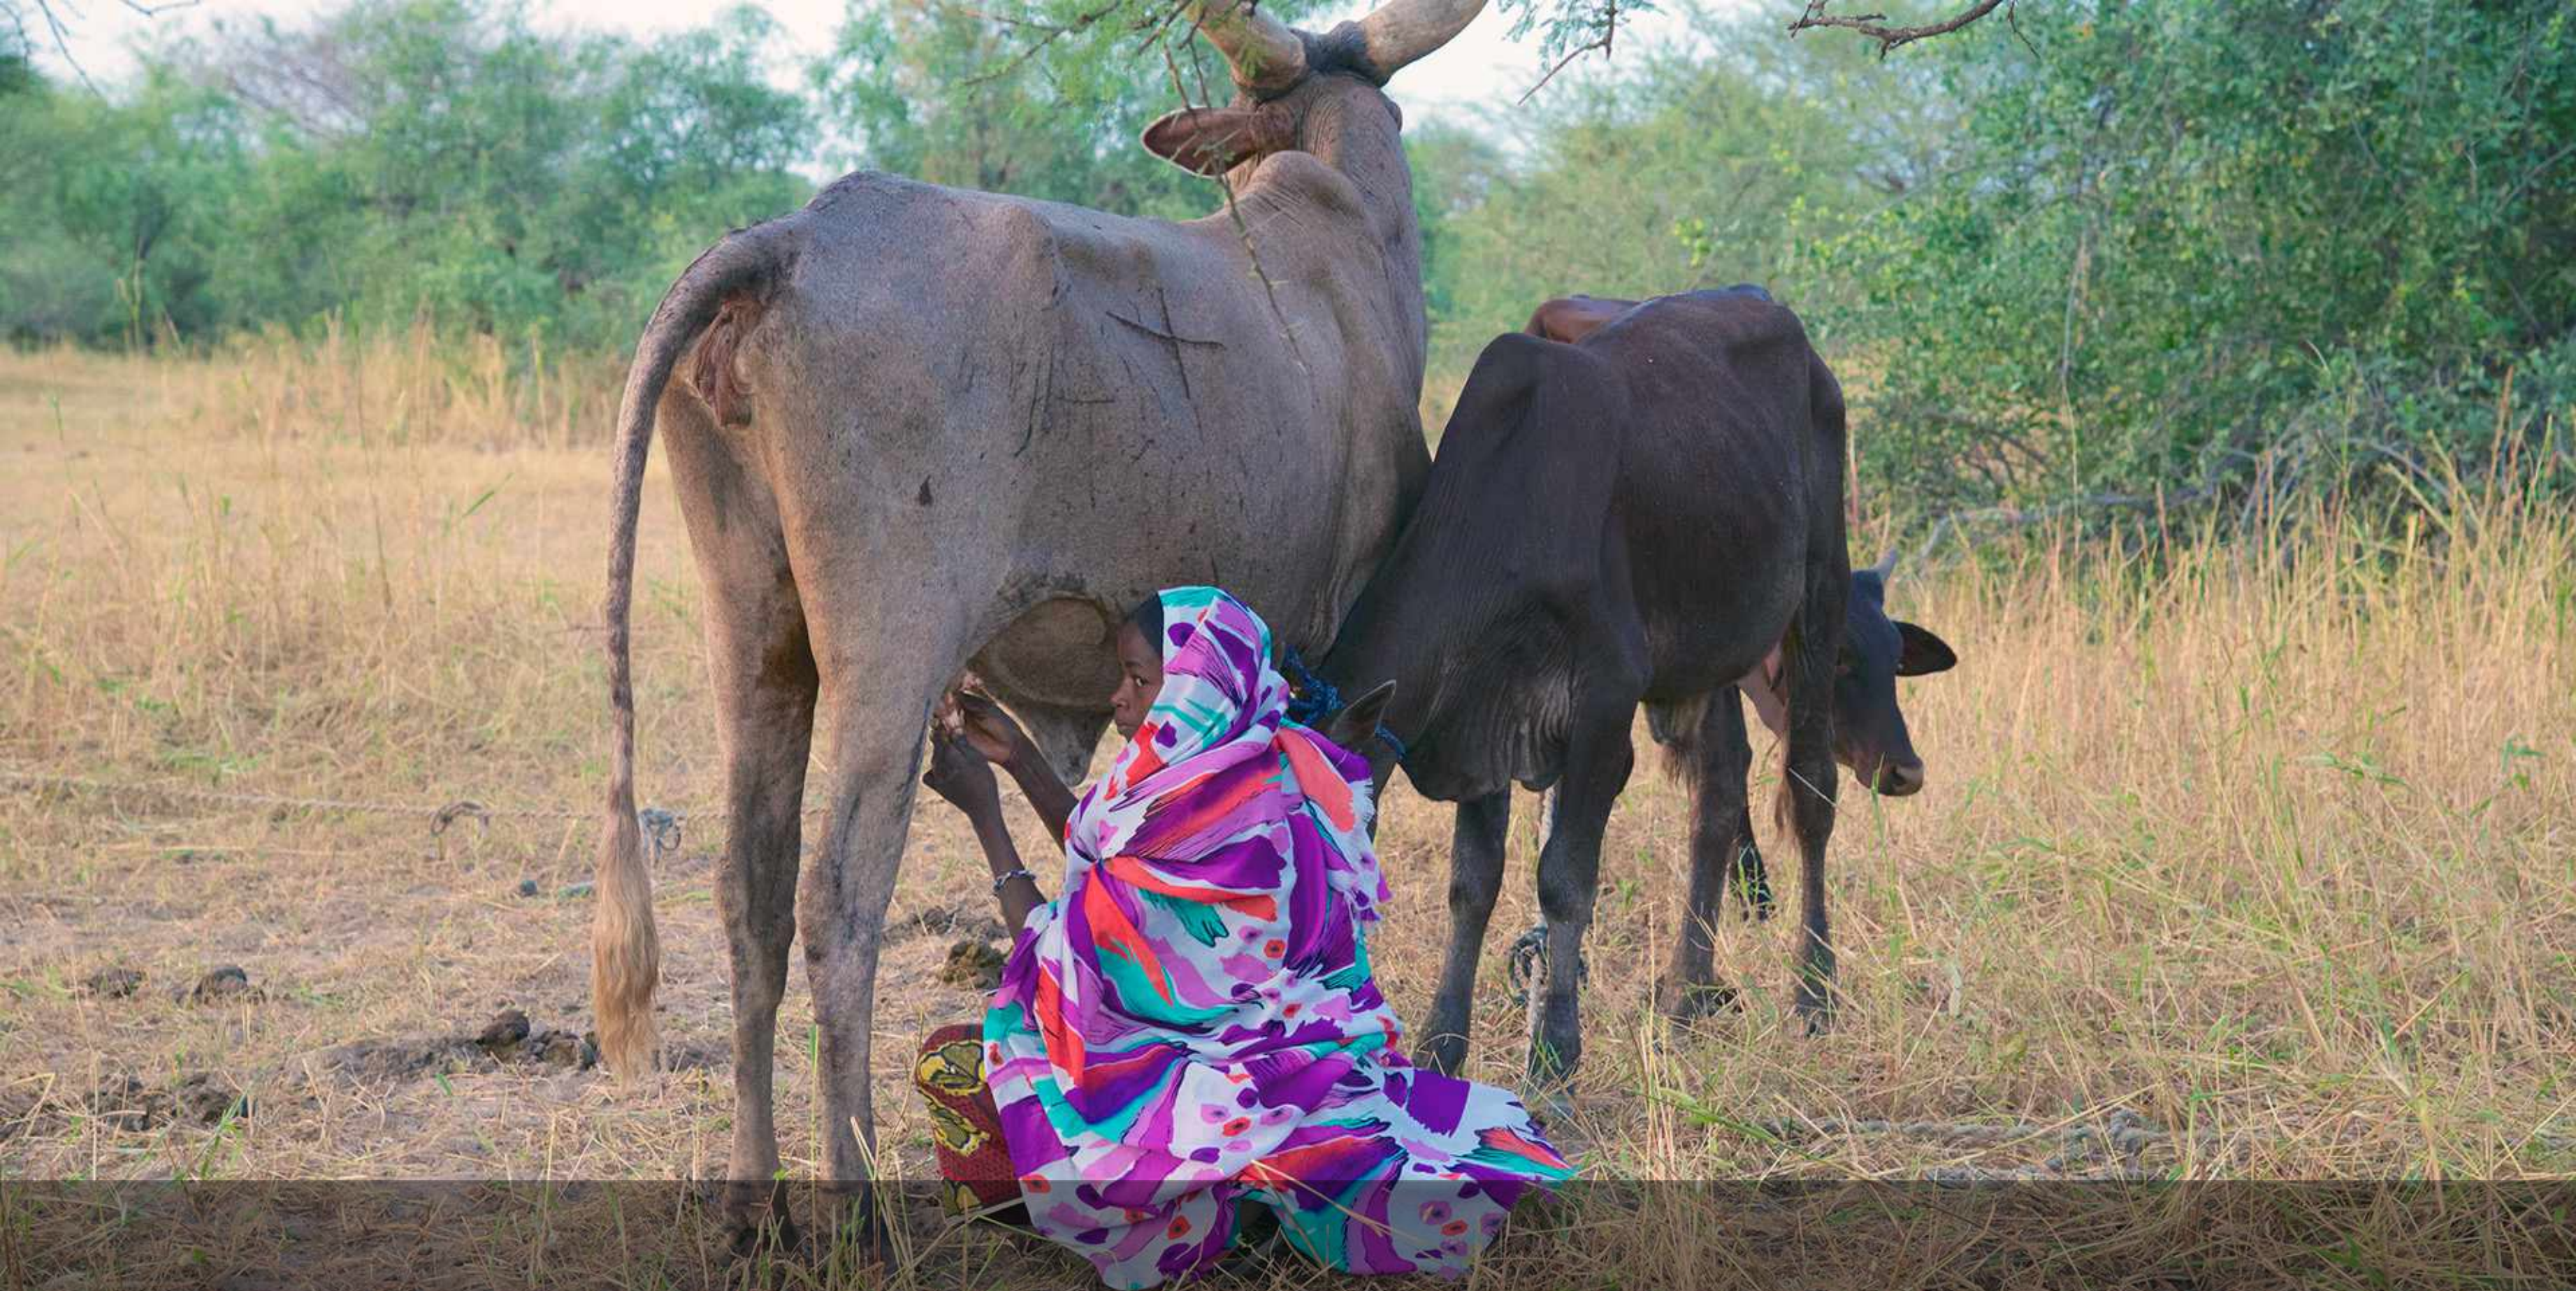

Water is frequently contaminated (© C. Heuss, Swiss TPH)

Ethiopia: Water point (© J. Zinsstag, Swiss TPH)

Gredaya Falls, Africa (© C. Heuss, Swiss TPH)

Gredaya Falls, Africa (© C. Heuss, Swiss TPH)

Gredaya Falls, Africa (© C. Heuss, Swiss TPH)

Ethiopia: Health centre (© J. Zinsstag, Swiss TPH)

References

Photos: Swiss TPH